

VON HINDENBURG NOT MOVING AS FAST AS USUAL

Cavalry Cut Dvinsk-Vilna Railway but the Opposition by Russians Is Still Very Stubborn in Counter Attacks.

A SLOWING UP IN GALICIA

It Is Claimed Austro-Germans Are Falling Back across the Dneister and Will Soon Be Outflanked if Reinforcements Do Not Arrive Soon.

London, Sept. 15.—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's drive towards the Dvinsk-Vilna railway is not progressing as fast as his previous enterprises of a similar kind have done, and except at one or two points about midway between these towns, where his cavalry have cut the railway, he is still being stubbornly opposed by the Russians, who are making vigorous counter attacks.

Von Hindenburg has, however, reached a point west of the bridgehead across from the town of Dvinsk and is preparing to attack that fortified area. Along the rest of the line the German advance has also slowed up, while in Galicia the Russians are still attacking, and, according to official reports from Bucharest and other points, the Austro-German armies are falling back across the Dneister river. Just north of the Galician border the Russians also are on the offensive and are making an attempt to recapture the fortress of Dubno, which the Austrians took last week.

This offensive in the south, it is believed, will have an effect on the rest of the front, as reinforcements must soon be sent there, or the Teutonic allies will run the danger of being outflanked. Despite this, the Austrians have sent reinforcements against Italy and have at some parts of the line assumed the offensive. The country is so rough and the Italians, since they declared war, have been so successful in capturing important positions for defense, that an advance by the Austrians cannot for some time threaten the defenders.

The heavy guns continue their bombardment along the western front, and in the Vosges another battle is in progress for possession of Hartmannsweilerkopf, which has changed hands so often during the past few months.

According to dispatches from Holland the British warships have again attacked the German positions on the Belgian coast. Air raids by allied airmen now occupied by the Germans and by Zeppelins on England are daily occurrences.

Washington County Court.

Montpelier, Sept. 15.—Judge Waterman heard several arguments today in county court, sitting as chancellor, there being no jury cases ready for trial when court convened. After the hearings the following cases were transferred from the jury calendar to the chancery calendar: Maria R. Bertoll vs. F. J. National Bank of Montpelier; Harry H. Martin vs. Archie Patchelder.

The following divorce cases were entered today on the docket: Mark S. Ladd vs. Ruth M. Ladd; Carrie A. Houghton vs. Daniel E. Houghton; Minnie J. McCarthy vs. William McCarthy; A. C. Foster vs. Ellen Foster; Ella St. John vs. Leonard St. John; Mrs. E. Hayden vs. Walter V. Hayden; Christina Matson vs. John T. Matson; Edward Badley vs. Rose M. Badley; Israel Schwartz vs. Natalie Schwartz. The following general assumpsit case was entered: Charles Bianchi & Son of Montpelier vs. Standard Monumental company of Louisville, Ky. The amount sued for being $28.

Jurors in Shirt Sleeves.

Rutland, Sept. 15.—Formalities were dropped in Rutland county court today because of the hot weather when the jury got down to business on the first whole day of the September term. The temperature of the room was oppressive and Judge Zed S. Stanton announced that the court would not take offense if the jurors wished to remove their coats. The 12 men instantly "peeled" and the majority of them waved fans while they listened to the evidence in the case of State vs. John Akelius of Proctor, aged 46 years, a quarryman, who is charged with criminal assault upon Schelle Smith, four-year-old daughter of Jacob Smith of Proctor.

Twenty-one new divorce cases were filed today. In addition to these there are several other similar cases on the docket.

MANCHESTER FAIR.

Manchester, Vt., Sept. 15.—Fully 3,500 people attended the second day of Manchester fair today, probably the largest crowd in the history of the association. The country exhibit was renewed after being omitted from the program for several years. Among the various exhibits none was more pleasing than the floral exhibit furnished by the Manchester Garden club, the flowers coming mainly from the gardens of Manchester's resort colony. The first race was won by Lady Wilcox, the property of C. E. Britton, of Marlow, N. H. In straight heats, it took four heats to decide the 124 trot, which was won by a local horse, Keegan, belonging to Frank Benedict of East Dorset. But two horses started in the third race and Peter Crank, owned by N. H. Spafford of Springfield, won in straight heats.

VERMONT STATE FAIR VISITED BY 20,000; RECORD SECOND DAY

Mercury Above 90, but the Big Crowd Vastly Enjoyed the Varied Exhibits, Exciting Track Events and Vaudeville—Green Mountain State Well Represented, Also the Other New England States.

White River Junction, Sept. 15.—The Vermont State fair made history today. With an attendance of nearly twenty thousand persons, perfect weather, notwithstanding the thermometer rose to above 90, three exciting races, and track events that filled every minute of the afternoon, the day goes into the record as the greatest second day since the State fair was instituted.

Not only was every section of Vermont represented by well known citizens, but prominent men from other New England States were present. Among them was Spencer Borden of Fall River, Mass., the famous breeder of Arabian horses, and Charles A. Stone of Boston, an exhibitor of Morgan horses. Among the prominent breeders of Morgan horses on the grounds are C. C. Stillman and Henry S. Wardner of New York city.

To-morrow there will be three trotting races, a 215 trot, a 217 pace and a 225 trot for a purse of $500 in each race. The prize horses and cattle will parade on the track as today. Four-in-hand, tandems and saddle horses will be exhibited before the grandstand. The Norwich cadets will give an exhibition of military and trick riding.

At four o'clock in the afternoon the girls' milking contest will take place. There are thirteen entries in this event. The vaudeville performance will take place as usual.

1,000 AUTOMOBILES.

This might well be called automobile day at the State fair. Before noon eight hundred cars had parked and by three o'clock there were eleven hundred cars on the grounds. Of these one hundred came from Montpelier, most of them coming from the board of trade of that city. There were forty cars from Rutland and in them came members of the Merchants' association of that city.

The parade upon the track of Morgan standard bred and non-standard bred horses and cattle and oxen was one of the best exhibitions of the kind ever seen upon the track.

TILTING EXHIBITION.

An exhibition of horseback riding, the riders carrying lances six feet long and driving at full run under standards holding suspended rings, was given by Miss Sue Evans and Miss Polly Evans of Windsor, daughters of the late Maxwell Evans, and Miss Rosa P. Tyson, daughter of James W. Tyson, Jr., of South Stratford, who offers a silver trophy to the winner in this contest. The exhibition today was preliminary to the real contest which takes place to-morrow.

Students from Norwich University at Northfield gave an exhibition of military maneuvers, hurdle jumping and fancy and trick riding.

The State fair commission regret very much that all its efforts to secure another flying machine to take the place of the one disabled the first day of the fair were unavailing.

E. A. Sunderlin of Lebanon, N. H., the well-known trotting horse breeder and driver, was quite severely bitten by a horse at the trotting horse stables yesterday, but he was able to drive in two races today.

SOME HEAT PROSTRATIONS.

In the emergency hospital there were about 50 cases of heat prostration. About 15,000 persons visited this building during the day.

Before a gathering that crowded the big spacious grandstands to their capacity and which included people gathered about the judges' pavilion, the grandstand and the vaudeville stage, all of the events scheduled on the program occurred on time and the pleasure of the assemblage was frequently demonstrated.

EXCELLENT RACES.

There were three races on the card, a 225 pace with ten starters, that went four heats. Lady S., driven in the first heat by Rehman and in the three successive heats by Pierce, winning the race. In the 213 pace stake Susie M., owned and driven by Sunderlin of Lebanon, N. H., won three straight heats but was pushed back by cheerful Charlie, a New Bedford horse. Susie M., known for the last half dozen years on the tracks of New England, was a big favorite.

Five started in the 224 trot, the race going three heats, being warmly contested by four horses. Brighton, a bay gelding from the Canadian border, and a new horse from the same place, pulled down first money in three straight heats.

JUDGES AT WORK.

The judges are all hard at work in their several departments, and blue, red and white ribbons are being displayed by those fortunate enough to be the winners. At ten o'clock today Prof. M. B. Cummings of the U. V. M. addressed the assembled audience in the public service building on the subject of "The Fruit Industry in Vermont," and was followed by Mrs. A. C. French of East Dorset, who was the subject of "The Impulse of Housekeeping to the Farm." Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, will speak to-morrow morning before the grandstand, and Friday at eleven o'clock a. m. U. S. Senator John W. Weeks at the same place will speak on "Higher Citizenship."

IN FLORAL HALL.

In the several halls are to be found many things to interest and amuse. Floral hall contains many specimens of the handwork of the feminine sex from the many placed bed quilt to the finest embroidery, pictures, paintings, hand painted china, and other nick-nacks. The "Kitchen" have a large exhibit, made by its members, and which are sold, the society known as the "Kitchen" receiving 10 per cent of the proceeds. Beautiful articles so dear to the feminine heart are among them. The Green Mountain Card company of White River Junction have a large display and there are several exhibitors of fine paintings, and pencil and charcoal drawings, and among one exhibit is shown two large specimens of pen work by E. H. Cunningham made at the age of 77 years. Planes occupy the middle portion of the hall.

In another section is an exhibit of taxidermy, made by C. S. Phillips of Glover, Vt., one of the most interesting in the building. He shows mounted heads of deer, moose and other animals including a magnificent specimen of a caribou head. Mr. N. Corlies of Post Mills has a pretty exhibit of hand finished pictures and sepia work and decorated china. There is also a fine exhibit of antiques.

In Horticultural hall large exhibits of fruits and vegetables are made by Echo Farm, Enfield, N. H., Orchard Grove Farm, White River Junction, Hope Farm of Hartford, Belmont Farms of Middlebury and Jerichona Farm of White River Junction, while there are several smaller displays. One especial feature is the showing of timothy grass by Vermont farmers. Some of these exhibits are five feet in height.

BILLION LOAN ON WAY TO ACTUAL ACCOMPLISHMENT

Every Indication That the Anglo-French Commissioners' Work Thus Far Has Equaled All Their Expectations.

ANOTHER VIEW NOT SO ROSY

Pro-German Financiers of New York Develop Overnight Feeling of Resentment and Are Inclined to Feel Hurt Over Lack of Invitation to Take Part.

New York, Sept. 15.—America's billion dollar loan to Great Britain and France seemed to be well on the way to actual accomplishment to-night according to bankers familiar with the pledges secured by members of the Anglo-French financial commission during their five-day stay in this country.

Announcement at this time that the success of the loan was assured would be, these bankers thought, decidedly premature; but there was every indication, in their opinion, that the commission's work thus far had met with a decided success that had fully equaled their expectations.

This rosy view did not coincide with the sentiments of those opposing the big loan, nor of the so-called pro-German financiers here who have not been invited to attend the commission's conferences or meet the commissioners.

SEVERAL PLEDGES SECURED.

So far as could be learned from bankers in touch with the commission and its work the situation to-night was about as follows:

Pledges already have been secured for a considerable fraction of the big loan. Other pledges are in prospect. The so-called pro-German banking houses of New York will be invited to participate in the loan if the commission can be persuaded that they will agree in their expressions of willingness to do so.

The billion-dollar loan probably will be divided into two and possibly four separate series of equal amounts. Bonds upon which the loan will be granted will bear not less than five per cent interest and will be payable in dollars, free from British income tax requirements.

An attempt will be made to sell the bonds at par, in case the interest rate should be five per cent. Members of the commission fully believe that such bonds could be disposed of at par, but American bankers have their doubts on this score.

Opposition to the flotation of the loan is country-wide among Americans of German sympathies or parentage, but this has strengthened other bankers in their determination to assist in the aid of the commission's friends. The bonds are to be payable in either five or ten years. Possibly one series will mature in five and the other in ten years. This has not been decided.

In the hands of the commission, it became known to-day, many American bankers have placed their pledges to take part of the loan. Not a hint as to the amount of these pledges was given, but there were indications that the sum totaled many millions. These promises, it was assumed, were contingent upon conditions of the loan.

In nearing the intimate details of the transaction, the members of the commission narrowed their conferences to-day to a smaller circle of financiers which included only the most influential of the country's financial and industrial factors. Among the men who are known to be consulted with the commission are J. P. Morgan, George F. Baker, James J. Hill and Festus J. Wade.

COTTON CROP CONCERNED.

In much the same vein as Mr. Hill had spoken for the great wheat growers of the Northwest, Mr. Wade, it became known, called the commission's attention to the necessity of covering shipments of cotton with any credit loan that might be negotiated here. The prosperity of the American cotton-grower of 1915, Mr. Wade thought, was wrapped up in the success of the commission. With the allies eliminated as extensive purchasers of cotton by the commission's possible failure to establish the desired credit, Mr. Wade was inclined to take a gloomy view of the situation in the southern States during the year to come.

The commission is reported as having made it clear to Mr. Wade that the proposed credit loan, if obtained, would provide funds to care for exports of cotton as well as every other article imported by Great Britain and France from this country.

As to the actual details of the loan there was no authoritative information, but bankers were generally agreed as to the reported life of the loan and the interest rate.

PRO-GERMAN FEELING.

Overnight a feeling of resentment in certain financial groups in Wall Street seemed to increase on the matter of participation by the so-called pro-German financiers of New York. These financiers, who constitute a formidable array of financial power, have not been invited to take part in the loan and were inclined to-day to feel hurt.

"In many cases," said a spokesman for this group, "the name of the firm is German and the officers all American, descendants of Germans, but born and raised in this country. These men are good Americans and they feel hurt that they are not permitted to share in councils of so vital interest to their country."

Washington, Sept. 15.—Secretary Lansing made it plain to inquiries to-day that no violations of domestic or

International law was involved in the proposed flotation by the allies of a large loan in this country.

The secretary explained that the attitude of the Washington government had long ago been announced, that its expression of disapproval of loans as "inconsistent with the spirit of neutrality" had been occasioned by a direct request for advice by American bankers concerning loans in general, and that the administration voiced its opposition chiefly to loans by popular subscription or those which would take large sums of gold from the United States.

BELGIUM PROTESTS.

Declares Germany Is Tearing Up Tracks and Sending Them to Poland.

Hayre, France, Sept. 15.—The Belgian government has protested to neutral States against the action of the German administration in tearing up and transporting to Poland the tracks of the Belgian railroads. The protest is based on an article of the fourth Hague convention, which stipulates that the occupation of invaded territory shall constitute only an occupation de facto. Removal of the railroads, the note contends, will make more difficult the transaction of business by a large population of Belgium.
